Materials

- Wool roving in various colors
- Felt in various colors
- Floral wire
- Scissors
- Glue gun

Instructions

1. Start by gathering your materials. You'll need wool roving in various colors, felt in various colors, floral wire, scissors, and a glue gun.
2. To make the aloe vera succulent, start by cutting a piece of green wool roving into a long, pointed shape. Then, cut a piece of brown felt into a square and glue it to the bottom of the wool roving. This will be the base of the succulent.
3. Next, cut several pieces of green wool roving into smaller, pointed shapes. These will be the leaves of the succulent. Glue the leaves to the base of the succulent, overlapping them slightly.
4. To make the cactus succulent, start by cutting a piece of green wool roving into a round shape. Then, cut several pieces of green felt into thin strips. Glue the felt strips to the wool roving, overlapping them slightly. This will create the spines of the cactus.
5. To make the echeveria succulent, start by cutting a piece of green wool roving into a rosette shape. Then, cut several pieces of green felt into small, pointed shapes. Glue the felt pieces to the wool roving, overlapping them slightly. This will create the leaves of the succulent.

Tips

- You can use any color of wool roving or felt to make your succulents. Be creative and experiment with different colors and textures.
- To make your succulents more realistic, you can add details such as veins or spines. You can also use different colors of wool roving to create a variegated effect.
- Your woolly succulents are perfect for adding a touch of greenery to any room in your home. They're also a great way to add a personal touch to your home decor.
