

American Racism Soldier: A Lifelong Journey of Confronting and Overcoming Racism

American Racism Soldier: A Lifelong Journey of Confronting and Overcoming Racism is a powerful and eye-opening memoir that chronicles the experiences of a soldier who has spent his life fighting against racism and discrimination. This book is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the realities of racism in our country and what we can do to create a more just and equitable society.

The author, who served in the military for over 20 years, has witnessed firsthand the ways in which racism manifests itself in our society. He has seen it in the way that black people are treated by police officers, in the way that they are denied opportunities for education and employment, and in the way that they are marginalized and dehumanized in the media.
