Unveiling the Missouri DMV Test

The Missouri DMV Test comprises two parts: the written test and the driving exam. The written test assesses your knowledge of Missouri traffic laws, road rules, and vehicle operation. The driving exam evaluates your practical driving skills, including basic maneuvers, traffic navigation, and safe driving practices.

Part 1: The Written Test

- Multiple-choice questions covering Missouri traffic laws, road signs, and vehicle operation
- 80 questions with a passing score of 70%
- Time limit of 60 minutes

Part 2: The Driving Exam

- Demonstrate proficiency in basic driving maneuvers such as parallel parking, three-point turns, and lane changes
- Navigate traffic intersections, roundabouts, and other complex driving scenarios
- Exhibit safe driving practices and obey all traffic regulations
