"It's time for bed, Little Dinosaur," said Mama. "But I'm not sleepy," said Little Dinosaur. "I want to play some more." "I know you do," said Mama. "But it's getting late and you need to get your rest." "Okay," sighed Little Dinosaur. "But can I brush my teeth first?" "Of course," said Mama. "And then you can put on your pajamas and climb into bed." Little Dinosaur smiled. He loved getting ready for bed. It was his favorite part of the day. He started by brushing his teeth. He made sure to brush all of his teeth, even the ones in the back. Then he spit out the toothpaste and rinsed his mouth with water.

Next, Little Dinosaur put on his pajamas. He had a special pair of pajamas with dinosaurs on them. He loved wearing them because they made him feel brave and strong.

Finally, Little Dinosaur climbed into bed. He snuggled up under the covers and closed his eyes. He was so cozy and warm. He could feel his eyelids getting heavy.

Little Dinosaur took a deep breath and let it out slowly. He was so relaxed and peaceful. He could feel himself drifting off to sleep.

Good night, Little Dinosaur.
