

Pretty Little Liars: Secrets, Lies, and the Price of Gossip

Synopsis

Pretty Little Liars is a captivating young adult mystery thriller series written by Sara Shepard. The story revolves around four friends—Spencer Hastings, Hanna Marin, Emily Fields, and Aria Montgomery—who are living their seemingly perfect lives in the idyllic town of Rosewood, Pennsylvania. However, their world is shattered when their former friend, Alison DiLaurentis, is murdered. In the aftermath of Alison's death, the girls begin receiving anonymous text messages from "A," who threatens to expose their deepest secrets. As the girls investigate Alison's murder and try to uncover the identity of "A," they must confront their own flaws and navigate the treacherous world of high school friendships, relationships, and betrayal.
