Anya:

Anya, a brilliant young doctor, has always felt the weight of expectations from her family. Determined to carve her own path, she faces the disapproval of her traditional Trinidadian mother and embarks on a forbidden romance with a man from a different culture.

Karen:

Karen, a struggling seamstress, dreams of a better life for her family. As she navigates the challenges of single motherhood and financial hardship, she uncovers a long-held secret that threatens to unravel her world.

Lorna:

Lorna, an aging matriarch, has witnessed countless changes throughout her lifetime. Now, as she reflects on her past, she grapples with the choices she has made and the secrets she has kept hidden for decades.

As these three women grapple with their own personal demons, they find strength in their shared experiences. Together, they navigate the complexities of love, loss, and a society shrouded in secrets. They learn to embrace their vulnerabilities, challenge societal expectations, and ultimately find their own voices.

Secrets We Kept is a captivating tale of identity, family, and the resilience of the human spirit. It weaves together the rich tapestry of Trinidadian culture, exploring the complexities of race, class, and the search for self-discovery.

Through the voices of Anya, Karen, and Lorna, this book offers a poignant reflection on the secrets we keep and the transformative power of truth. It invites readers to question their own assumptions and embrace the journey of self-discovery.
