

Unmasked: A Gripping True Crime Account That Will Haunt Your Dreams

Unmasked by Paul Holes and Robin Gaby Fisher is a gripping true crime account of the Golden State Killer investigation and the relentless pursuit of justice. For decades, the Golden State Killer terrorized California, committing a string of brutal rapes and murders that left entire communities living in fear. But in 2018, thanks to the tireless efforts of investigators like Paul Holes, the Golden State Killer was finally unmasked.

Unmasked tells the inside story of the investigation, from the early days when Holes and his team were struggling to find any leads, to the breakthrough that finally cracked the case open. Holes and Fisher provide a gripping account of the painstaking work that went into identifying the Golden State Killer, including the use of DNA evidence and genetic genealogy.

But Unmasked is more than just a story about a crime investigation. It is also a story about the victims of the Golden State Killer and their families. Holes and Fisher give voice to the survivors, who have endured years of trauma and pain. They also tell the story of the investigators who worked tirelessly to bring the Golden State Killer to justice, often at great personal cost.
